

Anne R. Brown

March 22, 1927 - July 15, 2022

Anne Richardson Brown, born March 22, 1927, peacefully left this world on the 15th of July 2022, age 95, after a long and full life.

Preceded in death by her husband Harper Brown and parents, Howard “Dick” and Page West Richardson, Anne is survived by her sister Mary Lee Hilly, four daughters: Carol Brown, Peggy Brown, Nancy Earnest and Linda Stephens, their spouses, nine grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Anne met Harper on a blind date and they spent 49 happy and busy years together. Anne loved music, especially the piano and handbells. She majored in music at Randolph Macon Woman’s College, taught piano, raised four daughters and was a very dedicated volunteer and Board member of the Lake Forest Symphony. She enjoyed athletic competitions. Basketball, field hockey and golf were favorites in her youth and paddle tennis, tennis and golf were enjoyed throughout her active life. She was an avid Chicago Bulls fan. A very outgoing person, Anne was always looking out for others, connecting many newcomers to church, symphony, and other activities. Anne was happy anytime she could see the moon, pansy flowers, eat chocolate, spend time with her daughters or grandchildren or wear purple. Summers on Chebeague Island, Maine were always very special, enjoying lobster, salt water, salty air, and connecting with extended family.

The family is deeply appreciative of the love and care given to Anne by her caregivers and all the staff at Lake Forest Place. A private celebration of life will be held.

Memorial contributions to honor Anne may be made to The Recompense Fund: P.O. Box 42, Chebeague Island, ME 04017 (www.recompensefund.com) or to the charity of one's choice.

“ Anne was very kind to me when I first joined the symphony guild board, instilled confidence and always asked me to come sit by her if I was sitting alone. Wonderful person to everyone.
