

Benjamin Nan Kou Ho

October 24, 1943 - January 14, 2025

Benjamin Nan Kou Ho, age 81, of Wadsworth, IL (formerly of Lake Forest, IL and Cypress, CA), passed away on January 14, 2025 at Advocate Condell Medical Center in Libertyville, IL.

His journey was marked with profound dedication to his family, friends, and his professional career. He enjoyed golfing and had an affinity towards anything maritime. His witty humor kept his friends laughing; his being the loudest.

His life was one of enduring love and commitment. He was the beloved husband of the late Karen Ming Pu Ho, with whom he shared a lifetime of cherished memories. Together, they raised two daughters, Millie (Christopher) Mauer and Amy (Robert Patrick "Bob") Bless, who remember their father as a pillar of strength and wisdom. Benjamin's legacy continues through his adored grandchildren, Christopher, Madison, and Madeleine Mauer, and Christopher and Nicolas Bless, who will carry forward his spirit of leadership and kindness.

An analytical man with the passion to learn, Benjamin's education was a combination of academia, service, and oversea journeys. He went on to lead a successful career and retired as president of an international shipping company.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Shu-Tu Ho and Kolung Lin, and brother, Tung-Chu Ho.

Services and interment at Lake Forest Cemetery will be private.
