“ I first knew Darci was special when I asked my kids what their favorite class was when they started at LBMS and they both said Social Studies! And then randomly through the year they would come home and say, “ social studies is so cool Mom! Guess what Mrs Johnson said today...?” And then there was the day my kids came home and announced, “Mrs Johnson said that if we do the research then we can ask Alliance to get VR glasses for our class!” And they did. How cool is that?
Thank you for opening up the whynot? box for my kids Darci. You are missed already. Wendy White

My heart is broken at the loss of one of the most beautiful human beings God ever put on this earth. I had the good fortune of knowing Darci from the age of 7. I followed her thru school and Indiana University. I was in the loop when 3 children were born, A card at Christmas with their pictures would find its way to my fridge door. My love goes out to Dale and Darien and the beautiful children. I won't make it to Lake Forest but I will be at Lake James for internment and the circle will be completed because that is where I first met DARCI.all these many years ago. May GOD grant you peace and love at this time. Love AARON SMITH

We came to know Darci Johnson when our daughter Barbara started at LBMS for 7th Grade with Mrs Johnson as her homeroom teacher. Mrs. Johnson quickly connected with her new student, making her feel very much at home, getting her engaged in her classes, and always building her up. Her ethical, intellectually curious, and fun spirit always brightened our daughter's day, and she remained highly engaged with her students long after they left LBMS. Our deepest sympathies for peace and healing go out to the Johnsons at this sad time. So many people will miss her terribly.
