“ Yes, I sit here looking at the beautiful flowers at the cemetery. My tears flow, Burt and Donna were my favorite pals in high school and never ended. In fact, our children were born on the same day at Lake Forest Hospital. Burt would have me laughing so hard that my C-section was ready to explode. We had fun pushing buggies together. We had fun with everything together. I love you, Kelley. I love you, Burt I love you, Donna, I love you Todd. God bless you, squirl.

“ Donna and I were in dialysis together. When she and I started no was speaking to each other. Donna had everyone talking to and getting to know each other. Donna was so lovely, caring and passionate. I felt she truly loved and cared about all of us at the clinic. Personally she was very kind and giving to me. Her small acts of kindness and treats made my day. Donna is truly missed. God bless her soul.

“ Donna welcomed me into her home ( usually unannounced!) like she was the “Welcome Wagon Lady”. She had a way of making me feel she’d been just waiting for me to come by. We always had boat load of laughs and silly stories to make our time together joyful. A visit through her garden was Awe inspiring. What a gift had she had for creating a thing of beauty there. The passing of Donna leaves a special place in my heart aching for more.

“ My heart truly goes out to Donna’s family. Nobody could smile and laugh like Donna. Donna and Burt and I had the best times together all through high school and later life. Kelly and my daughter Jodi were born the same day in lake forest hospital. Together we put huge pink bows and ruffles on them. Pushed buggies together and laughed, sometimes laughed at nothing. I loved her dearly. And my Burt. I will always have fond memories of those two crazy friends! Forever cherished, will be the two watercolors i framed of hers. Kelley,Roger, and Linda. You are in my prayers. Love you all. Squirrel (Shirley Coppi)
