

Evonne Knapp Amundson

March 18, 1934 - November 24, 2021

Evonne Knapp Amundson, passed away November 24, 2021 from dementia. She was 87. She is survived by her sister Marlene O'Connor (Jack), daughters Kari Amundson (Jeff Noncent), Wendi Amundson Unrein (Eric), Jennifer Amundson Nash (John), granddaughters Lauren and Elizabeth Nash, step grandchildren Sara, Tyler and Jenny Unrein and Great Grandchild Charlotte Unrein, also her many nephews and niece. She is preceded in death by her parents Ernest and Mildred (Meier) Knapp, brothers Edwin and Ernest Knapp, sisters Elise Knapp, her daughter Jill Amundson and ex husband Douglas Amundson.

She was raised in Three Rivers MI with many great memories at their family cottage on Corey Lake. She was a great swimmer and water skier. She respected education, graduating Stephens College and attending Northwestern University, majoring in Education and Music and was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She married Douglas Amundson and settled in west Lake Forest. She was a hardworking and committed employee for Abbott Laboratories in their Diagnostics Division for 33 years.

Evonne was an active and involved member of the First Presbyterian Church in Lake Forest where she was a Deacon, sang in their Adult Choir, participated in Christian Education and worked in their offices on the weekends. She traveled to England, Scotland, Wales, Germany, Austria and Switzerland with her choir.

She loved children, nature, all animals and was a passionate reader especially of the Sunday Chicago Tribune. She loved the arts especially music, PBS, her church and all things Michigan especially the Lake.

A private family service will be held at the First Presbyterian Church in Lake Forest and interment at their Memorial Garden.
