“ There is a special place for the parents of old friends who may not have known you well but we're willing to love you because their kids loved you. Took a loving interest in you because you were their kid's friend. It is a different kind of unconditional love than a parent for a child but it surely reflects back on their love for their child, or in this case step child. Fran offered that loving embrace of me and of course it was even more about her love for my dear friend Gwen. Elegant, funny and kind, I will always be grateful for Fran's grace by way of Gwen. Her memory is truly a blessing. 💔
