“ Fred was a kind soul. He was never too busy to stop and visit, no matter where we were or how busy he was. I'll always remember Fred and his dog Petey sitting on the porch at the Chicken Oil Co., having great conversations and laughing out loud.

He will be missed. I hope I can make it to the celebration in the spring.

Just hearing of Fred's passing. I, too, loved him and Petey back in those days. Fred taught Petey all kinds of tricks to hilarious commands like: "What do girls in California do, Petey?" Fred used to always sing to me, a silly song called "Let's Bake a Cake." He was a wonderful soul. I wish I could have reconnected with him before he passed. So very sad to hear this.

“ My deepest sympathies Liz, Philip and your families. There was only one Fred on this earth, his crazy sweet spirit touched my soul. Two days before he left TX, he walked me to my car. I had been at the gym and my knee popped real loud and I fell back in to my car seat. Fred heard the pop and ran towards the house. I still laugh thinking of the look on his face. The next day, he taught me how to walk on crutches, due to a torn meniscus. I still smile thinking of the sweet way he did that. I will carry Fred in my heart, always. Prayers for you, Jodie Hodges
