“ Mom was always warm and kind when we saw her at the Llanos home. But my favorite memory of her is when all of you flew to Colorado for Ximena and Freddy's wedding. She and her sisters took the whole day to get ready for the late afternoon wedding. I remember walking into their bedroom at about 2 PM to find all four sisters crammed into a queen size bed giggling like little school girls with cucumber slices on the eyes and the comforter pulled up to their chins! ! At the time they were probably in their 50s and 60s so it was so precious to see them loving each other and being so excited for the upcoming wedding. That is how I will remember Isabel, she is a beautiful woman with a big heart Who lived joyfully!
