

Jeanne S. Jackson

October 11, 1940 - September 9, 2024

Jeanne S. Jackson, a cherished wife, mother, nana, and great-nana, passed away peacefully at home on September 9, 2024, in Lake Forest, Illinois, at the age of 83. Born in Dallas, Texas, to Eugene R. Conant and Marie Bloome Conant. Jeanne's life was marked by her unwavering courage, strength, and independence.

Jeanne moved to North Chicago, Illinois, where she was raised by her grandmother and graduated from North Chicago High School, which laid the foundation for a career that would span four decades. Her professional life was dedicated to office administration, where she became a familiar and respected figure within the community. Jeanne's diligent work ethic and quiet personality were well-known at Midwest Bank, Village of Lake Bluff, Lake Forest Parks & Recreation, and Altounian Builders and Vacala Construction.

Beyond her professional endeavors, Jeanne's heart was truly at home. She was married to her beloved husband, Frederick E. Jackson, for 50 memorable years. Their love story began at the Parks & Recreation Department, blossoming into a lifetime of shared moments. Together, they raised three children: David, John (Maureen), and Kristin (Stan) Wilson. Jeanne's joy multiplied with the arrival of her grandchildren, Alexandra, Julia, Dylan (Taylor), Trevor, and Mackenzie Jackson, Peyton, Kolten, and Sutton Wilson and her great-grandchild, Wyatt Jackson.

Jeanne's interests were simple yet profound. She found pleasure in needlepointing and shopping for loved ones, but her greatest delight was spending time with her family. Her presence was a source of stability and love, creating a legacy that will be cherished by all who knew her.
