“ I was the LFHS nurse for 10 years and ate lunch with Lenore for a few of those years. She also taught some of my children. I was very impressed with her boundaries that she set with her students and with her level of professionalism. She made me think. She felt school should be a privilege and not a requirement. I try to share that with my grandchildren now that school is an opportunity for them and to try and look at it that way. I always enjoyed visiting with her over lunch. You can all be proud of her as she was a very special person. Sue Beckley
