Please accept my sincerest sympathy on your loss. Marsha and I became friends working on committees of several different organizations. Marsha was one of a kind: funny, outgoing, stylish, adventuresome, interesting and invested. her advice was most helpful. She will be missed by many. Sincerely, Nora Ancona

“ Deepest condolences to the family of Marsha Temple. I knew her earlier as the spouse of alderman Larry Temple and since then as a supporter of the Lake Forest Preservation Foundation and a regular attendee of the organization's events, educational and social. She was a warm, positive, and encouraging force in the community who will be greatly missed.

“ So sorry to hear of Marsha’s passing. Dick and I have many happy memories of time spent with Marsha and Larry. When we pass away we will be entombed in the wall across from them. Maybe we can get together for cocktails just like we used to-or at least share a few laughs. Donna Slayton
