“ Rest in peace Sue. You will be greatly missed but the memories of your friendship will last forever. So many good times. Highwooooood! Great dinners, parties and dancing until all hours of the morning. The Dancing Queen! Not to forget your amazing cooking and baking. My favorite, your sausage bread! Ciccio and I would finish the whole thing in no time. I'm sorry for your suffering but you were not alone. Always surrounded by your wonderful daughters, family and friends - so much love. Missing you already.

“ My sister and I growing up, though I was seven years older still managed to have our fun times. One of my most fondest and hilarious memories was when we shared the chore of doing dishes. One time while it was my turn to wash and her turn to dry, I had washed and she came in to dry. I went outside and after she was almost done, I stuck a hose from the outside into the window and soaked everything including her. I thought it was funny, though our parents and her thought differently. Now that’s a memory that will never die. 😊

I am so grateful that my wife and I were able to come stay for a few days last summer to visit her and the girls.

She will be missed very much and will forever be in my heart.

Until we meet again Sue, I love you a bunch!! Give Mom and Dad a big hug and kiss from me. See ya soon little sister.

I love you,

Bob
